My dear Mr Manley,

I have been thinking over the proposition concerning going away for Spring training. I've had a talk to my wife about it, but she does aprove naturely. I am true to my word. I will be at the proper when the time comes, but just now I have my new reclassification. I do not know when I will be called. Nevertheless I am determined to go. I don't think I will pass my examination.

I hope you are true to your word in what you told me.

After my second week in Spring Training you must give me my offer. Which you know I have a very good that I'm leaving to play on the team for your benefit. In case its not a good offer and I not like it You must give me your word that you will send me home within the two weeks. I hope this is suitable to you. For in these times one must be very careful including me.

I liked very much the way you talked to me very much. I hope that we can come to a clear under-standing conserning my last para-graph. Its very necessary that you you do.
